To the Members of

The American Numismatic Society:

As stated in the annual report of the Committee on the Publication of Medals, January 18, 1909, the medal designed by Mr. Emil Fuchs, at the request of The American Numismatic Society, to commemorate the discovery of the Hudson River by Henry Hudson in the year 1609 and the first use of steam in navigation on the Hudson River by Robert Fulton in the year 1807 has been adopted by the Hudson-Fulton Celebration Commission as its official medal.

The original dies, prepared by The American Numismatic Society, are three inches in diameter. From these dies there have been struck, for members of this Society only, two examples in native gold from California, and one hundred examples in solid sterling silver, numbered from one upward.

These dies are now to be delivered to Messrs. Tiffany & Company, who will strike therefrom only such medals in

Council of the American Numismatic Society,

Gentlemen:-

I beg to tender my resignation as a member of your society, only for the reason that I have no time to spare to the Society's objects. Otherwise, it has given me great pleasure to belong to it. I believe the time for resignations is the month of January.

Very truly yours,

February 7, 1910.

Mr. Warner Van Norden,
786 Fifth Avenue,
New York.

Dear Sir:

I am in receipt of your letter of January 31st, resigning your membership in this Society.

We have just established a class of Associate Members, who have all the privileges of the Society except the right to vote and hold office, and who pay but five dollars per year dues.

Judging from your letter, you still feel an interest in the work of the Society, and I would suggest that, instead of leaving us entirely, you continue as an Associate Member.

Hoping that you will give this your favorable consideration, I am, believe me,

Very truly yours,

Secretary.
